Fredrik Paulsen (b. 1980) is based in Stockholm, Sweden. He holds an MFA from the Royal College of Art in London and a BFA from Beckmans College of Design in Stockholm.

Fredrik's work includes furniture and interior design as well as exhibitions. He is interested in creating a sense of accessibility and community, using design as a vehicle.

In the spectrum of Paulsen's work are notions of anti-consumerism, psychedelic escapism, and counter-culture. This work celebrates atmosphere and artificiality through material, color, and form.

With a playful approach to the care-free and mundane, he experiments with creative processes, challenging the sense of preciousness inherent to the field of design.
